

lisakucher3

Jan 26, 2021 1 min read

Glossary – Word of the Day: "CN Code"

The Combined Nomenclature (CN) code is the EU's 8-digit code which makes up the statistic commodity number used for export and intrastate.

It is based on the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System (HS), an internationally recognized nomenclature of standardized product classification developed by the World Customs Organization, complemented with further EU subdivisions.

