

Patrick Goergen  Sep 16, 2021 1 min read

Pierre Rasmusen is joining RespectUs as a Business Analyst

Updated: Oct 12, 2021

Pierre Rasmusen, a Luxembourg resident with many international links, holds a Bachelor degree in Aviation Management (IUBH University of Applied Sciences, 2015) and a Master's degree in Global Logistics and Supply Chain Management (University of Southern Denmark, 2018).

He worked with Cargolux and Lycée Technique des Arts et Métiers.

He speaks English, French, German and Luxembourgish.

Pierre has joined RespectUs as a Business Analyst in September 2021 to work in Lisa Kucher's team. Welcome Pierre, and looking forward to a great work with you.

Pierre spent most of his life in Luxembourg, some years in Germany, and Denmark for his studies. Being a motorbike enthusiast, he travels yearly with friends to foreign countries, packed with all the camping and cooking gear needed for the trip. With a competitive spirit, sports play a big role in his life. He completed three marathons and has played rugby for a total of 6 years for his university team IUBH Barbarians in Germany, Rugby Club Odense and Rugby Club Luxembourg.

Pierre is excited to jump onboard with the RespectUs team and commence a new journey with like-minded individuals.